

Tiny but mighty!

Windy Ridge quail eggs are a naturally healthy and delicious alternative to chicken eggs. With demand on the rise, these tiny eggs have big potential to become a popular in-store staple.

Crack a new egg!

Quail egg sales have nearly doubled since 2016, and their popularity continues to rise! Foodies love them for their taste, health-conscious consumers seek them for their nutritional benefits, and many ethnic consumers are excited to find this familiar ingredient at their local store.

With an MSRP of $3.50 for a pack of 18, what was seen as a rare delicacy is now an affordable, fast-selling staple.

Our eggs exceed USDA standards, and our farm staff are HACCP certified.

Consistent quality

Today's consumers demand perfection. Each egg is carefully inspected before going into our unique package, designed to keep them fresh and safe on the way from our farm to your customer's table. Windy Ridge quail eggs are guaranteed fresh.

Reliable supply

Your customers expect the products they love to always be in stock. We help food retailers and distributors keep fridges stocked by shipping up to two million eggs every week across the United States and Canada. And we have a proven track record of fulfilling orders on time.

Marketing support

Individual stores carrying Windy Ridge quail eggs can request POS marketing materials and have the option to activate a localized digital marketing campaign directing people to their store — at no charge.

ABOUT THE FARM

Family-owned.

Windy Ridge is a family-owned quail farm located in Ontario, Canada. Founded in 2002, our small but mighty farm has grown to become one of the largest producers of quail eggs in North America. Our all-natural eggs are free-range raised at our zero-waste facility, with no antibiotics or hormones.
